Module Browsing – good to know

– You are free to choose any courses offered by faculty, but...

– …book courses corresponding to your level of studies

– You may choose to enroll in 2 courses offered by other faculties, the language center and / or ETH

– Some seminars might be limited;
  -> a second application at the chair is normally necessary
  -> check online course catalogue and website of professor
Booking Modules

- Booking: Official registration for examinations
- Deadlines: Booking and cancellation starting on 16 January 2018 at 10:00 ending on 16 March 2018 at 00:00 (midnight)
- Every booked module will appear on your Transcript of Records even if you do not attend or write the exam (-> “failed attempt”)
Module Booking – How to avoid pitfalls

- Do read the course description and make sure you comply with the requirements
- Book only courses on the appropriate level of studies
- Do not book more than 20-30 ECTS credits per semester
- Remember to cancel modules you do not want to attend
- Ask your Buddies all the nasty questions
Drop Petition with Doctor’s Attestation

– If you cannot take an examination due to an illness or accident, you must submit your withdrawal
– The petition must be submitted to the Dean's Office no later than five business days after the examination date.
– All modules whose examinations take place during the duration of the inability to work will be canceled.
– Individual repeat examinations for individual students are not permitted.
Transcripts of Records

- All students at UZH get their transcripts of records electronically (in English and/or German). It lists all passed and failed modules.
- It will be available for download as a PDF in the student portal from September 19.
- You can access the student portal up to four months after end of the semester. If you need a transcript of records after this time, please use the contact form provided by the Student Services Office.
- You can also order a printed version of the transcript upon request (on white paper, stamped and signed). -> Please make sure to check the address in the student portal and change it if necessary.
