

Major study program in Business Administration – Assessment level (1 st & 2 nd semesters)		60 ECTS credits
Economics:	Microeconomics I, Macroeconomics I	18
Business Administration:	Business Administration I + II, Financial Accounting	15
Finance:	Banking and Finance I + II	6
Informatics:	Informatics for Economists	3
Mathematics and Statistics:	Mathematics I + II, Statistics	18
Major study program in Business Administration – Advanced level (3 rd – 6 th semesters)		90 ECTS credits
Common compulsory program
Economics:	Microeconomics II, Macroeconomics II	6
Business Administration:	Business Administration III, Managerial Accounting, Financial Reporting	12
Statistics:	Introductory Econometrics	6
Working Methodology:	Introduction to Scientific Methods	3
Core elective areas
BWL 1 - 6: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Accounting, Auditing and Governance: explores external and internal accounting methods as instruments for supporting decision-making and guiding behavior, and looks at external and internal audit as well as corporate governance. - Corporate Finance and Banking: focuses on corporate finance and investment, as well as business administration within banks. - Organization and Human Resources: looks at the ways in which human resources management as well as organizational structures and processes contribute to a company's success. - Marketing: deals with market-focused business management; in other words, the process of aligning all business activities with the needs of markets and society. - Business Policy and Governance: looks at subjects such as corporate strategy, international management, entrepreneurship, technology and innovation management, corporate governance, and corporate social responsibility in globalized markets. - Management Science: analyzes and offers solutions to management problems by applying analytical methods drawn from mathematics, statistics, and other specialist disciplines. 		36
Elective area		9
Bachelor's thesis		18

Minor study program of choice (3 rd – 6 th semesters)		30 ECTS credits
Economics		Selection of a minor study program comprising 30 ECTS credits
Business Administration
Banking and Finance
General Business and Economics
Information Systems
People-Oriented Computing
Informatics
Depending on the programs on offer, students may select a minor study program offered by another faculty.		